AS EXECUTORS OF JAMES HALL DEC'D the undersigned will sell to the highest bidder, on Thursday February 24th the valuable real estate of said deceased; consisting of one of the most desirable business stands in the town of Salem, situated on Main Street, on the North-West corner of the public square, facing the Salem Female Academy. Said property is a new, and commodious brick building, with business stand and dwelling combined.

Also, a large two story frame building on Main street likewise a good stand, business having been conducted therein for many years.

A ST. LOUIS SENSATION—EXCITEMENT IN EAST ST. LOUIS OVER A HAUNTED HOUSE, A CHILD'S SPIRIT AND ITS WONDERFUL PERFORMANCES.

[From the St. Louis Republican, January 5.]

East St. Louis has a veritable sensation. Not a criminal incident, nor an ourre accident, but a haunted house. It is not exactly in East St. Louis, but near enough to be easily accessible, and sufficiently peculiar in the character of its hauntings to excite a vast amount of comment, and even no a small amount of excitement.

The spirit possessed mansion is situated on the Belleville road, a little over two miles from East St. Louis. It is a small frame house, on what is known as the Robbineaux farm, and is occupied by Mr. V. Bennett and family, and is a little withdrawn from the road. It is now some time ago since the first alleged spiritual manifestations occurred, but more recently the noises and voices have grown louder and more frequent, until the fame thereof has run throughout St. Clair county and further.

The producing cause of all the commotion is said to be the spirit of a little girl in blue who, or which, is frequently visible to a little girl of Mr. Bennett's family. A curious feature of the affair is that the operations of the spirit or spirits are not confined to the night, but occur in open day. Coats and other garments hung on books in the wall are seen suddenly to drop to the ground; then again they will move slowly up again and regain their position on the book. Noises are heard, scratching noises, as if a child's finger tips were being drawn over the dry plaster of the ceiling and walls. Disturbances will be heard in the garret, but on running up there it is found empty and silent. A child's voice is reported to be often heard—a merry voice, suggestive of mischievous pranks. Nay, more, it is firmly alleged that the voice answers questions—not difficult queries, but such as could be answered by any ordinary young girl.

Sometimes the voice is a faint elfin whisper, then again more clearly a genuine human voice. It will keep up a dialogue sometimes, and at others will only speak in sentences and be audible to particular persons. This saucy spirit, however, goes further and pulls the children's dresses and disturbs furniture. On Friday, as is reported, one of the little girls was coming in from the well, and could hardly get along, owing to "the way the thing was pulling me."

As above indicated, one of the family, a little girl, avers that she sees the spirit. It is that of a little girl about twelve years of age, dressed in a blue merino frock with furs, and wearing a bonnet and cloak.

Numbers of people from East St. Louis and vicinity have visited the house, and all come away amazed with the wonder. Among others it is said Father Zabel, of the Catholic Institute, was called to the house on Tuesday, and expressed the opinion that it was an evil spirit. A special reporter dispatched to the scene became unnerved and could only furnish disjointed memoranda of his visit. Yesterday Colonel Jarrolt, Mayor of East St. Louis, proceeded to the house with several other gentlemen. They returned home convinced these was something in it. Here are some notes of one of the party:

Leaving the city of Illinoistown in our rear we took an easterly course from the turnpike and soon discovered the house occupied by a Mr. Vital Bennett. The house is one of those rural edifices which may be seen in all farming communities throughout the State of Illinois. We passed through a narrow gate, and were soon greeted by the fierce bark of the faithful watch dog, who seemed disposed to dispute our passage.

The house is a small frame building, composed of two rooms and a garret overhead. We were greeted at the door by a sweet little girl of twelve summers, who said, "Come in, gentlemen, and see the spirit." Taking a seat in the neatly furnished parlor, and feeling ourselves at home, we laid our things outside and hung our outer garments on a nail. Engaged for a moment, we turned around and our garments had disappeared.

What has become of them? No one could tell; only they are gone. Entering into a conversation with the spirit, we were told who we were, where we came from, and what our business was. Little Hattie, the child of Mr. Bennett, is the only person who can see the wonderful spectre, whom she defines as being a child of, apparently, about twelve years of age, dressed in a blue merino frock with furs, bonnet and cloak. Clothes, articles of furniture, barrels of flour and in fact, every movable object within the house has been removed from its position. Doors are opened, unhung, and removed; lights blown out are relighted, garments on the family are repeatedly pulled and handled, and something is awaiting a demonstration and Here our communication breaks off.

Such being the position of matters, no doubt the house will be haunted by hosts of visitors. The family is described as a simple rural household, and totally unable to understand the so called manifestations themselves. During to day it is said quite a large party will visit Mr. Bennett, s from East St. Louis.

An explanation of a haunted house can generally be found other than that furnished by the lovers of the marvellous and supernatural; but in the mean time the house on the Belleville road promises to become as famous as the house at Wardown. A child's spirit in blue; laughing, talking, pulling one's clothes, rattling furniture, blowing out lights and relighting them again with its pretty little fiery, electric lips. Here's a sensation that should awake all the curiosity of St. Louis spiritualists, and which beats Harper's Magazine story all to nothing.

We await further developments.

In some quarters ice companies are notifying their customers that prices will be increased nearly fifty per cent., the coming season, on wholesale purchases! What notification will be given in return we are not informed, says the New York Times, but we should judge a proper one to be that fifty per cent advance will not be paid. Ice enough has formed north of us. New England has had its fair proportion, and rather than pay an advance so enormous as that now demanded, it would probable be cheaper for customers here to buy ice imported from the North. It will come to this if extortion is attempted; and at least people will do well not to make hasty contracts based on the mildness of winter in this neighborhood.

KEROSENE LIGHTS PERFECTED!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric

KEROSENE LAMP.

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SAFE LAMP IN USE.

Artificial Light, of some sort, is a universal necessity; it is safe, cheap, and brilliant one is a luxury; a luxury, too, only enjoyed heretofore by those living in large towns or cities where Gas is used. Years of study and thousands of dollars annually have been spent by experiments of different kinds, in trying to invent and perfect a Burner or Lamp by which Coal Oil or Kerosene could be burned practicably, without the expense and trouble of chimneys; this long looked for and much desired subject has at last been obtained, and is styled the

ATMOSPHERIC KEROSENE LAMP!

Its adaptation to Dwellings, Churches, Railroads, Steamboats, Hotels, Stores, &c., is unsurpassed; in short, this invention brings the luxurious and brilliant Gas light within the reach of all, whether in the City or Country. It gives the light of a six-foot Gas Burner, for less than one cent per hour, or double the quantity of light of the ordinary chimney-lamp with one third less oil; will burn, when turned down to a taper light ten hours for one cent; is free from smoke or smell; can be carried from room to room; the wind will not blow it out.

This Lamp is destined to supersede all portable artificial light or ordinary lamps now in use and needs only to be seen to be appreciated; thousand of them will and readily sell in every county. no family that uses this light for one evening will again be annoyed with the chimney-lamps Thousands of them will be used in cities, as this light is one half cheaper than Coal Gas, and much more pleasant to the eye.

The sole right for the sale of this Lamp can be had for the entire State or the same will be sold by Counties.

Parties purchasing will be supplied, at wholesale, with the lamp and fixtures at reasonable rates.

Immediate application should be made to secure the choice of Counties.

The Lamp can be seen in full operation during the day and evening at the Yarbrough House.

All letters will receive prompt attention and full explanation of the Lamp given.

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP DOUBLE CIRcle saw Mills in workmanlike manner for those desiring them.

There are now 640 of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction. One advantage of this Mill is, that the sawyer, without changing his position, gives the head ward and forward motion to the carriage, with a single lever; and as the log at both ends at the same time, this is a saving of one hand to the mill. This is no humbug. I am responsible for what I say. My residence is 20 miles South of Raleigh, on Neal's Creek. For further particulars address me at Raleigh, N. C.

Ed. WRAY.

I will be at Lyon Adams' Store on the 2nd to the 5th of February, where persons desiring to see me will please call.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

Mr. E. J. Wray, Dear Sir:—I am more pleased with my double Circular saw Mill, built by you. I can cut a log 14 inches deep, 20 feet long, in 45 seconds, with my 72 feet overshot wheel. We have to-day cut 5,000 feet weather-boarding, flooring, and man board, in eight hours.

Dec 23rd 1869. AL. MINOR PARRIN.

Mr. E. J. Wray:—We are well pleased with our new double action Mill, that you put to work for us. We can cut twice the amount of lumber that we could with the 6d Mill or 42 inch saw and same water wheel.

P. YATES.
JAMES PERRY.

This last mentioned Mill may be seen on Walnut Creek, 5 miles South of Raleigh.

THE BOURBON OF TWO STATES.

Many nights last week it was reported by Littlefield's aiders and abetters that that scourge of two States was on the coming train and would be here "to-night," and that then "Jo. Turner would be silenced or chipped." That "to-night" on which Littlefield was to be here didn't come last week. On Monday it was said he would be here Monday night, and while we are writing this, the prediction is strong that Tuesday night's train will bring him. If this be true then between the writing of this, and its perusal by the reader, the Governor will have the pleasure of clasping his friend and State Printer to his throbbing and enraptured bosom.

As to the effect the arrival of the great Lobby Mogul may have in "silencing Jo. Turner," it will depend upon "circumstances over which he will have no control."—So long as the Governor is silent in regard to his Railroad President and State Printer debauching and corrupting the black people's representatives, and dishonoring the credit and fair fame of the State, we do not expect to be silent—not much—if we can help it.

The audaciously defiant silence of the Governor while his friend and State printer plunders the people of the State, seems not to be a subject of very great astonishment. This may arise from the fact that the whites did not look for anything better of a Governor elected as Governor Holden was, and hence they are not dumbfounded or even astonished at his course of quiet acquiescence while Littlefield sacks and plunders the State.

As to any threats of violence, we care no more for them than we did for the Governor's writing to President Johnson to "handle Turner at the proper time." We regard it all as the ravings of men smarting under the exposure of their crimes, by the SENTINEL, and a conscious sense of guilt.—We regard such threats no more than we would the clamor and brawling of so many criminals who, in ropes and chains, are daily led to the Penitentiary, cursing the Magistrates of the law who have committed them. It is just as natural that these criminals should revile and rave at their accusers, as those.

It was said by the leader of the Republican party in the Senate, (Galloway,) that there were Senators who had been "fed and clothed by Littlefield," and the fact is sufficiently sustained by the heavy drafts in favor of Grausman the Clothier, by Littlefield, on the National bank, amounting to hundreds and thousands of dollars; and by the fact of Littlefield paying the Hotel bill of Sinclair, and, perhaps others, as well as by the free bar opened in the Capitol by him. A Senator, speaking of the sale of the N. C. Railroad, was heard to declare that he had been offered $2,500 for his vote.

When the Public Treasurer was summoned before the Committee of the Whole, in the House of Representatives, as a witness in regard to the fraudulent use of State bonds, by Littlefield and others, the Governor advised him not to go, and actually sent a special message to the House informing that body it was unconstitutional (!) thus to call upon the Public Treasurer. Who ever heard, before, of constitutional objections to the exposure of public frauds and peculations!

The temper of the Governor and his party was fully shown when they introduced and advocated a bill allowing Littlefield, Sinclair, Windy Billy Henderson, Chicken Stephens, Cuffy Mayo, Estes, Shoffner, Greasy Sam, Jay-bird Jones, Laflin, Tourgee, and John Ledbetter, who carries the great seal of the State in his pocket in Orange jail, to indict, instead of sue for slander; yes, to indict at the cost and expense of the State!

If this bill had passed we suppose all these worthies would have had divers indictments against us for slander. The passage of such a bill would have been disastrous to the finances of the State—more so even than Littlefield's State bond financeering, for we would have proved all we have ever said about the scoundrels, and the State would have had the cost to pay. It was doubtless the apprehension of some such thing which caused the defeat of the bill.

We say, rave on, ye Radical plunderers, but your days of iniquity and fraud and corruption are fast coming to an end. The people, insulted and robbed, will not much longer suffer you to pursue your foul practices and elude public justice.

We tell the Governor that when his State Printer comes, we are not to be "handled" by him, nor by his detectives, nor his militia. We tell the House of Commons, at the risk of being "handled" by all of them, that one of their body, the "loud-laughing" Laflin, is implicated in the abominable and illegal note given by Littlefield to "James Smith," for "illegal purposes," and this is not rumor, but the sworn testimony of Churchill of the Standard. We tell them, as a body, that the people will be likely to look upon them in the same light they do upon Laflin, so long as they are content to sit with him without inquiry into his alleged ill conduct.

We repeat it to the Senate, as a body, that they will incur public censure for their silence, when $2,500 has been offered, to buy one of their body, and they submit to it as quietly as some of them would to have bought a negro in the days of slavery.

While there is a threat to have us "handled," we intend to return the compliment to all who sit in silence at such public political prostitution.

HIGH PRICES—$2500 FOR A "HAND."

We have it on first rate evidence that the paltry sum of twenty-five hundred dollars has been offered to a member of the Legislature for his vote.

Dr. Hawkins gave the Governor's State Printer, the Standard man, $100,000 for lobbying through the Legislature a bill to appropriate, (contrary to the Constitution, by the way,) $2,000,000 for the Chatham Railroad.

We have told the "hands" frequently before, and we repeat it, (not that they are likely to forget the fact, however,) that there is money to be made out of the sale of the North Carolina Railroad. If they are true to themselves, (and they have exhibited no neglect in this respect heretofore,) and anything like a proportion is observed, they ought to have at least $500,000 as a bait to sell the North Carolina Railroad; and we tell them they can get it if they hold off strong.

We hear of one "hand" who has sent off two horses, a present from a member of the "Ring." When Barnett's bill for the sale of the Road comes up, let each "hand" cry out, "a horse! a horse! my vote for a horse!" But let them not stop at that, for each one can get not only a horse, but a carriage and harness thrown in, so that each one can drive home in his own vehicle, a striking cavalcade! We shall watch to see what a figure the "kildee" and Coffee will cut, as they strike out for the hills on the backside of Tar River.

We have heard that the failure of the bill to sell this Road, which was acted on all last session, was attributable to the fact that the Governor's State Printer, Littlefield, was absent from the city. Some think now, that it he can be kept away the Road is safe, and will not be sold. But "the Court doubts." Littlefield has his friends in the Executive, Legislative and Judiciary Departments. Even the Governor's silence in regard to Littlefield and "his tricks and his manners," is construed by many in defence of him. The vote of the Senate refusing to ask him to dismiss Littlefield as State Printer, is construed into a defence of him. The speeches of Moore of Chowan and the God-forsaken ex-Parson of Robeson, against telegraphing to Littlefield to come to Raleigh, is reasonably construed into a defence of him. The refusal of Cuffee Mayo to introduce resolutions to expel Laflin for his complicity with Littlefield in the $3,000 "James Smith" bond bribery case, is justly construed into a defence of him.

The presence of a Justice of the Supreme Court in New York, at the grand gathering, last Fall, of Railroad Presidents, Littlefield included, and the careful concealment of certain facts that were then and there brought to light, creates a suspicion of a disposition to defend him. The adjourning of the Court by Greasy Sam, when there was a presentment made of Littlefield for bribery, before a bill could be drawn, looks very much like defending him.

No; Littlefield's absence from this State is no security against the sale of the North Carolina Railroad, while he has so many friends in high places, many of whom may perhaps, be interested, beyond the mere claims of friendship, in the success of his schemes.

We suggest to the honest "hands" of the Legislature, that it is due to their character as Legislators, to inquire and find out WHO IT WAS that was offered $2,500 for his vote, and who it was that offered it.

THE BATTLE FIELD.

There is great difference in the character of battles, the features of battlefields, and the feelings which a sight of the one or a visit to the other inspires.

Yesterday, the day after the "battle of Fayetteville street," the scene of the battle was honored by many visitors; beaux and belles, maids and matrons, all came, smiled, laughed and looked happy, where, but one short day before, men had fallen, engaged in deadly strife.

But there was nothing visible to shock the nerves or horrify the finer sensibilities. No battered bullets or bleaching bones; no schrapnel shell or fragment of bursted bomb; no fallen beams or smouldering ruins; no artillery flash o'er murky battle cloud, no rumbling thunder from the cannon's throat; no shrieks, no groans, no scattered brains; no shattered arms and legs; no lifeless corpse, or coffin newly tenanted: Death, the great arbiter of battlefields, refused to fold his bloody shroud around the assailant or the assailed.

There was no smell nor sign of blood;
Where Moore fell nought was seen but—mud;
No damage done by gun or steel
But what the limpid stream can heal.

Commend us to such battlefields as this, forever; fair women and brave men may walk and talk and laugh over it; children play around it, and no one find anything over which to shed a tear, or heave a sigh.

TUESDAY, Feb. 8, 1870.

The House was called to order at the usual hour.

REPORT OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. White, for Committee on Counties and Townships, reported favorably upon the bill to establish the county of Swain.—Placed on the calendar.

Leave of absence was granted to Messrs. Long, of Chatham, and Justice.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

By Mr. Hodgin: A bill to amend the act to secure advantages for agricultural purposes. Lies over.

By Mr. Justus: A bill to prevent the felling of timber in French Broad River, and some other streams. Lies over.

Eagles, col., arose to a question of privilege in regard to an attack upon him in the Wilmington Post. He denounced Chas. Grady, editor of that paper, as a scape gallows, who had ravished a colored woman and had boasted of the vile act afterwards. He was a Republican, but he detested those low and degraded carpet baggers who had neither decency nor self respect, who make it their business to follow their low-born and vile instincts, by making war upon everything and everybody that was respectable and decent, &c.

Mr. Pou moved to suspend the rules and take up Mr. Welch's resolution declaring it to be the sense of the members of the General Assembly, that their term of office expires on the first Tuesday in August, 1870.

This created some debate and before a vote was reached, the special order was announced to wit: Bill to repeal certain sections of the public laws of 1868-'69. (This bill repeals all the sections that levies a special tax to pay interest on special tax bonds.)

Mr. Jarvis took the floor in support of his bill. There was no constitutional objection to the passage of this bill, calling attention to sect. 1, art. 8. When these acts were passed, the Legislature was the contracting party on the one side and the companies on the other, and when the companies accepted these amendments to their charters, they took this section as a part of the contract, and more than that, the purchasers of these bonds, bought them with the provisions of this section staring them in the face. Now if there was no constitutional objections to the passage of the bill then the question was whether it was prudent to pass it.

Mr. Jarvis went on showing the burdened and distressed condition of the people and the cruel hardships which this special tax system had worked upon them, and the reckless and unconstitutional in which this vast amount of debt had been contracted,—He argued at length showing, that in view of the undeniable fact that the people could not pay interest on both new and old bonds, that by every principle of honor and equity, the holders of the old bonds should be paid the State having received from them the par value of the bonds, and was now receiving benefits accruing from the expenditure of that money.

Mr. J. continued for sometime longer urging various legal and constitutional arguments in favor of his proposition.

Mr. Ames moved to lay the bill on the table.

The yeas and nays being called, the motion was rejected by the following ballott:

YEAS.—Messrs. Ames, Barnett, Bowman, Carson, Carey, Cherry, Crawford, Eagles, Forkner, French, Gahagan, Harris, of Wake, Hayes, Ingram, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Laflin, Leary, Mayo, Moore, of Chowan, Morrill, Morris, Pearson, Peck, Proctor, Robbins, Sinclair, Simonds, Smith, of Martin, Stevens, Sweat, Vest, Waldrop, White, Wilkie, and Wilson—36.

NAYS.—Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Ashworth, Banner, Blair, Clayton, Davidson, Durham, Ellis, Farrow, Ferebee, Franklin, Gatling, Gibson, Gilbert, Green, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Hawkins, Hicks, High, Hinnant, Hodgin, Holnett, Horney, Humphries, Jarvis, Kelley, of Davie, Kinney, Long, of Richmond, McCanless, McMillan, Mendenhall, Moore, of Alamance, Nicholson, Painter, Pou, Profitt, Ragland, Robinson, Shaver, Siegrist, Smith, of Alleghany, Snipes, Sykes, Thompson, Vestal, Welch, and Williams, of Harnett.—51.

Mr. Bowman, moved to amend by exempting sect. 10 chapter 36, which levies a special tax of one cent on the $100 worth, to pay the interest on bonds issued for the construction of a Turnpike Road from Marion, McDowell, to Asheville, Buncombe County. Mr. Jarvis accepted the amendment.

Mr. Vestal moved to amend by excepting sect. 4, chapter 32 from the provisions of the bill. (This section levies a special tax of one-twentieth of one per cent to pay interest on bonds issued to the North Western N. C. R. R.)

Messrs. Yest, Ingram, and Justice, opposed the whole bill.

Mr. French spoke in opposition and concluded by moving to postpone for one week.

During the debate, Mr. Sinclair took the occasion to rise to a question of privilege in regard to various attacks made on his character by Josiah Turner, Jr. in the Daily SENTINEL; during his remarks, he gave an account of his ecclesiastical troubles, and touched somewhat upon the question of States Rights.

A message was received from the Governor transmitting a communication from the Public Treasurer in regard to the financial condition of the State. The Communication was ordered to be printed.

The debate upon Mr. Jarvis' bill was resumed.

Mr. Pou hoped that the motion to postpone would be voted down and the bill passed its second reading.

Mr. Moore of Chowan opposed the bill, and wanted to know what was to become of investigation if this bill was passed, rendering valueless the very bonds whose misappropriation this House had for weeks been called on by the friends of this bill to investigate.

Mr. M. continued to some length in his opposition to the measure.

After some further debate, the motion to postpone for one week was put to a vote and prevailed by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Ames, Ashworth, Banner, Barnett, Bowman, Carson, Carey, Cawthorn, Cherry, Crawford, Dixon, Eagles, Forkner, French, Gahagan, Gilbert, Graham, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, Hayes, Hicks, Hilliard, Hodgin, Horney, Ingram, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kinney, Laflin, Leary, Long, of Richmond, Mayo, McCanless, Mendenhall, Moore, of Alamance, Nicholson, Painter, Pou, Profitt, Ragland, Robinson, Shaver, Siegrist, Smith, of Alleghany, Snipes, Sykes, Thompson, Vestal, Welch, and Williams, of Harnett.—51.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ames, Carey, Cawthorn, Crawford, Eagles, Forkner, French, Gahagan, Graham, Gunter, Hayes, Laflin, Long, of Richmond, Mayo, McCanless, Moore, of Chowan, Morrill, Proctor, Ragland, Renfrow, Robbins, Sinclair, Waldrop, White and Wilson—21.

Mr. Proctor moved to adjourn. Lost.

Harris, of Wake, col., took the floor in opposition to the bill, and moved its consideration be postponed until the Committee appointed to investigate the alleged mismanagement of the printing, should report to the House.

Mr. Pou opposed the motion to postpone and hoped the bill would be passed at once.

Mr. Ames moved to adjourn. Lost.

Mr. French favored the motion to postpone and was opposed to the bill.

Mr. Sinclair also opposed the bill.

Crawford col., moved to lay the whole matter on the table.

A vote being taken the House rejected the motion, by a vote of yeas 18, nays 46 (Messrs. Ames, Carey, col., Cherry, col., Crawford, col., Eagles, col., Gahagan, Graham, Gunter, Hayes, col., Laflin, Moore, of Chowan, Morrill, Morris, col., Proctor, Renfrow, Sinclair, Simonds, Waldrop and White, voting in the affirmative.)

Pending further debate, the House on motion of Mr. Proctor, adjourned.

Virginia.—The Legislature met yesterday. We will give the Press dispatches to-morrow.

We call special attention to the advertisement for a house to rent; it is a very nice and pleasant place, with all ordinary conveniences and in a good neighborhood. See also other ads.

Baptist Fair.—We regret that we forgot, in our yesterday's issue to call attention to the Baptist Fair at Tucker Hall which opened last night. Dr. Pritchard requested us to do it, and we intended to comply, but owing to the fact that our columns were crowded, and our sanctum was crowded all the afternoon and evening, it escaped our recollection. [And right here we will say that the best way to insure attention to things of this sort is to send a note to the office or come in person, because we are apt to forget things when merely mentioned to us on the street. It is a misfortune with us that often causes us regret, but which we cannot help.]

But the Fair continues to night, and those who did not go last night can yet avail themselves of the opportunity. Every thing will be good and pretty, including the ladies, and everything will be cheap enough, except the ladies; they are all dear, or all dears. And they are going to have a great many good things to eat, prepared expressly for visitors. Let no one fail of getting his share.

N. B. The edibles are splendid, "we're seen and sure we ought to know." There was a large crowd in attendance last night, but nothing like what will be witnessed there to night. Every thing is tasteful and elegant, and enjoyment the order of the evening.

Almost a Fire.—Yesterday morning a blaze was discovered issuing from the north side of the new Market House opposite one of the chimneys, which but for the early discovery, would have, most probably resulted in the conflagration of the building.

The fire was communicated from a flue of the chimney to some timbers let into the wall opposite to it to fasten the cornice timbers to; so we understand.

Last Fall we called attention to the near continuity of the timbers to the flues of the chimneys, and stated then that unless some change were made in the plan in this particular, it would greatly endanger the building, and gave an instance of the destruction of a building in this city from the cause alluded to.

It is greatly to be regretted that our suggestions were not heeded, as it will, under present circumstances, be very difficult to get an insurance on this costly structure, and there is too much of the people's money in it to leave it in its present unsafe condition.

We know that some thought, when we alluded to this subject, while the building was going up, that we merely wanted to carp, but that was false; we knew the thing was not done properly, and said so, and the fire yesterday showed we were right. The fact is, persons having property on the Square have just right to complain, on account of the danger the Market House entails on them of being burnt out.

But this generation is so prolific of Solomons that we don't like to venture an opinion on matters of public interest, even, for fear of being snubbed for our ignorance.

Have You Seen Him?—Somebody said Littlefield was coming to Raleigh, and would get here last night—have you seen him? Somebody said Swepson was coming—have you seen him? You may bet your bottom dollar they will not both be in Raleigh at the same time, yet awhile, if they can help it.

Catarrh.—The origin of Catarrh is in most cases A neglected Cold, which can be relieved by the use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches," by soothing the irritated and inflamed membrane extending from the nose to the throat. For Coughs and Throat Diseases the Troches are of great service.

All the Facts in a Nutshell.—The points of difference between Phalon's Vitalia, or Salvation for the Hair, and the other hair darkening articles, are these: They are sticky—it is devoid of gluten. They are opaque—it is transparent. They are fetid—it is fragrant. They are muddy—it is clear. They produces dull tints—it reproduces nature's hues. Plows.—We learn that Mitchell, Allen & Co., of Newbern, N. C., have procurred Steel Cotton Sweeps, made from the original patterns of David Dixon, Esq., of Georgia, they charge $5 for each, when stocked $7.

This firm is selling a large quantity of plows manufactured by themselves. They sell No. A. 6, 10, 11, and 50 plows at 2.50. Would it not be well for farmers to club in each neighborhood, and order together so as to get the freight cheap. Mitchell, Allen & Co., have the agency for the Foster Cotton Planters, and every variety of agricultural implements.

That Meeting at the Court House.—On Monday placards were posted on every lamp post and fence and pump in the city, and a notice published in the Standard, calling a Republican Meeting at the Court House on Monday night. Well, Monday night came; the gas was lighted in the Court House; the bell was rung; and after awhile, the bell was rung again; and then after waiting a little, somebody rung the bell; then a crowd of anxious patriots, like the heaving of a mighty ocean wave, didn't come! and stirring resolutions endorsing the present administration and defending the united Rads of the State against the foul aspersions of envious disorganizers, introduced and sustained by eloquent addresses and unanswerable arguments, wasn't passed; a full report of which, with all the fine flourish of introduction and poetic peroration, which Pike, is so good a hand at, when he has not watched too assiduously the flow of that "castalian fount," didn't appear in the Standard, of Tuesday morning. The question is, who killed cock-robin? —or, if nobody killed him, how came he to die—yes, "die and make no sign," even in the columns of the Standard?

Ruins.—The rains of the last few days have caused such a rise of mud in Fayetteville street, and in Harnett and Martin, near their confluence with the former, as to render them nearly past fording. Yesterday morning we noticed a cavalcade of carts and wagons loaded with cotton, passing through Fayetteville street towards the depot, which reminded us of the old days of Memphis, Tennessee, when teams occasionally disappeared at one spot and emerged out at another (as it was said,) and when persons on horseback were frequently in the mud so deep that only the crown of the hat was visible.

We are becoming accustomed to the sounds, "heh! heh! heh! hep there! hep! hep! hep!" all day sounding opposite our office. Drays, market carts, country wagons, carriages, all flounder through or stick fast, as it happens. More dirt—more dirt! who has any more dirt, to spare to mend the streets with.

Extravagant.—It strikes us as a piece of useless extravagance for Farries to be purchasing manure for the flower borders in the Capitol Square, while Moring is in the Legislature.

The Late Storm—Shipwrecks off our Coast—Four Vessels Beached; one goes to Pieces and all on board are lost.—As we sadly conjectured, the late storm off our coast has resulted in disastrous shipwrecks attended with great loss of life.—Capt. James H. Farrow, of the schooner Samuel C. Eborn, from Hyde county for this port, loaded with corn, arrived in the city yesterday overland from Federal Point and reported the wreck of four vessels upon the beach north of New Inlet.

About 9 A. M. Friday the 4th, during a terrible gale from the northeast, Capt. Farrow's schooner, the Samuel C. Eborn, was driven ashore on the beach about 4 miles north of New Inlet. About the same time the schooners Racer, Capt. Hatchell, and Ray, Capt. Nelson, from Elizabeth City, loaded with corn, were also beached, the Racer about ¼ mile and the Ray about 2 miles north of the Eborn. Shortly afterwards the schooner Eleanor T., from Baltimore, for this port, driven by the same furious gale, was blown upon the beach about ½ half mile to the southward of the Eborn, and in a few moments went to pieces. Five men were counted upon her deck as the vessel was driven ashore, and after the ship went to pieces were again seen manfully clinging to fragments of the wreck. It was a fearful sight to witness. These poor creatures tossed about madly by the waves and yet striving so manfully for life. Four of them had together secured one fragment of the wreck and the fifth clung alone to another portion. The crews of the three corn vessels, who had safely landed, and the pilots and wreckers who were attracted by the scene, lined the beach with the hope that some of these unfortunate sailors would be washed ashore, and that they could then render some assistance. But, alas, they were torn from the floating timbers by the wild, mad waves before the very eyes of those upon the beach and hid forever in the briny deep.

The Eleanor T. had on board a cargo of fertilizers and was consigned to Messrs. O. G. Parsley & Co., of this city. There was no insurance upon the cargo. The Eborn had as cargo about 900 bushels of corn, the Racer about 1,000 bushels and the Ray about 1,200 bushels, all of which we learn was insured. These three last named schooners lie "high and dry" upon the beach; but it is thought that probably some one or all of them may be gotten off. Mr. B. W. Beery, of the wrecking firm of Beery Bros., has gone down to examine the position of the vessels and see what can be done towards getting them off.

We fear, after these wrecks upon one of the least dangerous parts of our coast, we are yet to hear of others more dreadful still during the gale off Hatteras and other dreaded points.—Wil. Journal, Feb. 6th.

What does Reason say?

The little mongoose when bitten by a deadly serpent resorts to a certain plant eats of it, and escapes the effect of the poison. That is instinct. Human beings on the other hand, must depend on reason and experience in selecting the means of protecting health and life against unwholesome influences. Now, what does reason say on this vital subject? Does it not tell us that to invigorate and purify the system is the best way to protect it against the invisible poison which generates disease? Surely it does. The next question is, what guide shall we follow in choosing a medicinal safeguard? Reason replies let your monitor be experience. Well, the experience of eighteen years comprised in one unbroken series of satisfactory testimonials assures us that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters possess strengthening, regulating and antiseptic properties which are not combined in the same happy proportions in any other preparation extant. This therefore is the antidote to which reason bids us resort when our health is imperilled either by the malaria which produces epidemic disorders, or by any other cause, whether inherent and constitutional or connected with our habits, occupations and pursuits.

The venom of a noxious reptile is scarcely more subtle and dangerous than that which lurks in foul air and impure water. To escape the fevers, bilious disorders, disturbances of the bowels, and other serious maladies produced by these insalubrious elements it is absolutely necessary that the stomach and all the secretive organs should be, so to speak, in a robust condition. Upon the amount of resistance which the vital system can oppose to the deleterious influences that assail it, the safety of the health depends, and it is because the great vegetable invigorant imparts energy and regularity to the most important functions of the body, that it can be recommended and guaranteed as an invaluable preventive medicine.

Monday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Revenue to-day $147,000. The Senate Judiciary Committee will hear the Conservative-Republican delegation on Wednesday, regarding Georgia.

Trumbull has notified the Bullock delegation to be present.

The Election Committee has in seniority postponed Hegar, who claims a seat from Virginia at large.

In the House, Ridgeway introduced bills to repeal the act prescribing the oath of office, also for the removal of political disabilities from the people of Virginia.

Welker introduced a bill to discontinue the Freedmen's Bureau.

The resolution offered Monday last, declaring that constitutional authority to levy taxes, does and include any power to impose duties other than for incidental revenue, and that tariff one, especially, if levied to foster and encourage one section of the country or one class of citizens at the expense of another section or class, is unauthorized by the Constitution, unjust to the great body of people and injurious to almost all industries, and directing the Ways and Means Committee to prepare a bill accordingly, was laid on the table by a vote of 99 to 77.

The Indian appropriation bill as reported and made the special order for Tuesday next.

The death of Hoar was announced in both Houses.

In the Senate petitions were presented favoring an additional amendment granting female suffrage.

A bill was reported to encourage telegraphic communication between the Eastern and Western continents. It gives the American and European Telegraphic Company exclusive rights for fourteen years to two telegraphic cable from a point in Washington Territory; government vessels to assist in the enterprise.

The bill to protect Congressmen from impunity and preserve the independence of the several departments, and the causes fail were discussed without final action.

The delegation of Georgia are composed of Conley, President of State Senate, speaker protem. Tweedy, Judges Grice, Parrott, Harrell, of the Superior Court, Representatives Cubb, Mc. John Rose and others, called on Grant this morning. The interview was of an hour's duration, during which the political situation was fully discussed. The President stated that although his first impressions were that the action of the members was legal and binding, and the election of members was to be of great importance, yet after good counsel he was satisfied that the legislative organization was the first, and that all action should be commenced and done over. Governor, who the Republicans would support for Senator. To which the delegation responded that no nomination had yet been made, but would probably be on Monday and the election on Tuesday, and they, no doubt, would be loyal Republicans.

The President said that he and Chapman had a entire confidence in Terry and he would fully advise them of the situation in a few days, as to (Terry) would be here on public business. The delegation also expressed confidence in Terry's judgment and ability.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest Illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. Unprecedented Declaration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. HENRY'S

CARBOLIC

OR

BLOOD CLEANSER.

This medicine is known to the faculty as being the concentrated fluid extract of Sarsaparilla united with other valuable medicinal herbs, and is guaranteed as chemically pure.

SCROFULA AND CONSUMPTION,

This remedy is compounded expressly for purifying and cleansing the blood of all unhealthies, going at once to the fountain-head of disease. It extinguishes

Tumors, Consumption, Syphilis, Skin Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Boils, Abscesses, Worms of Ulcers, Scrofula.

We all know that the promiscuous vaccination indulged in during the late war bred the most villainous diseases. Vaccination pus was taken from the arms of many persons full of scrofulous sores.

Then of course the impurities of the scrofulous patient were absorbed in the blood of those otherwise sound and both be alike to entail upon children, Mean, women and children throughout all the West are most woefully diseased from this cause, and know not, until a few months, the origin of it.

Henry's Constitution Renovator

Relieves the Entire System of Pain and aches, enlivens the spirits, and sends new blood

BOUNDING THROUGH EVERY VEIN.

It imparts a

Sparkling Brightness to the Eye.
A Rosy Glow to the Cheek,
A Ruby Tinge to the Lips,
A Clearness to the Head,
Brightness to the Complexion,
Buoyancy to the Spirits,
And Happiness on all sides.

For all affections of the Kidneys it is unsurpassed.

People have been rescued, as it were, from the very jaws of death, by a timely use of this great remedy.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"Doctor, I was vaccinated in the hospital.—Before that I had no skin disease. Until I had a bottle of your "Constitution Renovator" sent me by Mr. Jasper, of Columbia, Mo., I suffered fortures with running sores. Since I used two bottles I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my left leg, and that is getting well fast." This from a lady.—"And now my skin is as clear and fair as a babe's. My complexion, thanks to your "Renovator," is beautiful.

Yes yes, I may well say such relief was unknown to me before. Enclosed find five dollars for said bottles; two families here want to try it."

"I was very much troubled with syphilis.—Your remedy seems to be curing me fast, send 4 bottles per Express."

"No more rheumatism. Three bottles of Constitution Renovator have made me a new man." "Doctor, enclosed find $5. Please send me a supply. Two families here want to try your Constitution Renovator."

We have not space for more of the above extracts, but you can ask your neighbor about the remedy. Every one has something good to say, as it cures every time.

For all Diseases of the Kidneys, Retention of the Urine, &c.

And for Female Diseases,

Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude, and Want of Appetite, it is unsurpassed.

CAUTION!—In ordering our remedy always place the number of our Post-Office Box on your letters. The new law in our New York Post-Office compels this.

DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD, Examining Physician.
Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

SUCCESS THE CRITERION!

THE BEST MANAGED IS THE BEST COMPANY!

DE SOTO MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

JAMES H. LUCAS, President.

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150.000.00!

Stockholders bound for Double the Amount of Stock!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual routes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,34
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets amounting up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,437 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
